Kansas law provides for informal hearings between property owners and the county appraiser's office to review the appraisal and ensure that the information on file is correct. An appeal should not be a complaint about taxes. You may protest your valuation or classification when you pay your taxes only if you did not file an equalization appeal on the same property for the same tax year, nor shall the second half payment be protested when the first half has been protested. See K.S.A. 79-2005(b). Complete this form and file a copy with the county treasurer's office on or before December 20. If at least half of the taxes are paid by an escrow agent, this protest must be filed no later than January 31. If taxes are paid after these dates, any protest must be filed at the time taxes are paid. The county appraiser's office will send you a letter indicating the date and time of the informal meeting along with further instructions.
